

Social Prescribing Lead Person Specification

| | Essential | Desirable |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Qualifications | Health and Safety Safeguarding | Horticultural or ecological qualifications. Social and therapeutic horticulture, health or social care qualifications. Emergency Outdoor First Aid qualification. |
| 1.Knowledge and experience | At least 2 years' experience of providing one-to-one support for people with a range of needs and abilities, including those with mental health needs. Experience of developing, delivering and evaluating person centred support plans in an outdoor setting, including with children Experience of maintaining regular monitoring and evaluation systems. Experience of building and developing partnerships with statutory and voluntary organisations and services. Experience of networking with diverse communities, and an understanding of, and commitment | Experience of working with volunteers and supporting their learning and development Experience working with weight management programmes. Knowledge of statutory and voluntary health and community services and referral pathways. Understanding of safeguarding and of risk assessment and management in the context of practical outdoor work. Experience working in a start-up environment. |

| | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| | to, implementing equal opportunities. Understanding of data protection issues relating to personal records. | |
| 2. Skills and abilities | Good oral and written communication skills, including group decision-making, negotiation and networking.. Ability to plan the workload independently, setting goals and monitoring the progress of work. Resilience and ability to adapt to changing working environment Ability to enjoy the process of developing an exciting project, and to work confidently and flexibly through challenging periods of development. Good IT skills, able to use Microsoft Excel spreadsheets and Word for tasks such a data recording. | Full clean UK driving license and access to own vehicle. Skills in gardening, conservation, woodworking or cycling/walking development. |
| Personal Qualities | A practical, hard-working attitude in all weathers. Flexible, adaptable and solution focused approach to work. | Local to the area or knowledge of the local area. An inventive spark – we support innovation and learning at Northern Roots. |